- Most basic point of 12:15 - Love does the right thing at the right time!
  - In other words, when someone you know is happy, successful, and rejoicing about their situation it is wrong for you to be sad because of your envy.
  - Or, when something bad happens to someone who you are envious do not rejoice at their misfortune.
- The Christian should be able to genuinely rejoice or mourn along with others and in response to other’s situations. This would refer to both believers and unbelievers.
- 1 Corinthians 12:26 - “If one member suffers, all the members suffer together; and if one member is honored, all the members rejoice together.”

12:16 - “Live in harmony with one another. Do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly. Never be wise in your own sight.”

- The root phron-, which means “think” is used three times in 12:16 which connects it back to the right kind of thinking Paul asked for in 12:3.
  - “Minding”
  - “Minding”
  - “Wise”
- “Live in harmony with one another”
  - Also in Philippians 2:2-5 where it says “be of one mind” (which does not mean see eye to eye)
  - Means: “be thinking the same thing towards one another.”
  - Philippians 4:2 concerning Euodia and Syntyche

- 2 Corinthians 13:11 - “Finally, brothers, good-bye. Aim for perfection, listen to my appeal, be of one mind, live in peace. And the God of love and peace will be with you.”
- Romans 15:5 as a prayer and a blessing
- Another possible translation is: “Have the same concern for everyone”
  - The literal Greek could be: “thinking the same thing to one another.”
- “Do not be haughty”
  - Do not be thinking high things about yourself
  - Pride and haughtiness is the biggest obstacle to the above admonition: “think the same thing toward one another.”
- “Associate with the lowly”
  - Alla is the Greek word from a strong adversative. Here it is reference to being “haughty” in the previous words.
  - The reference to “lowly” could refer to:
    - People - as in people of low position
    - Positions - as in menial work (the translation would then be: “Be willing to do menial work.”)
    - The Greek tois tapeinois could be
      - A Place of low-lying
      - People humbled and without power
      - Spirits that are downcast and dejected
      - Things that are poor, shabby
      - Moral sense which would then be understood as either bad or good depending on the context:
        - Bad - mean, base,
        - Good - lowly, humble
    - “Lowly” was a word the Christian world embraced as one of their most godly characteristics.
    - It is likely Paul is using the word “lowly”, ταπεινοίς, tapeinois to refer to both people of lowly position and work considered to be lowly.
  - “Never be wise in your own sight.”
    - Also translated as: “Do not be conceited.”
    - Conceit indicates a lack of understanding of reality and an easily deceived soul.

12:17 - “Repay no one evil for evil, but give thought to do what is honorable in the sight of all.”
